

Please do not make any changes that would allow me to be subjected to unsolicited calls from anyone. I have a telephone installed in my home for MY convenience. Must we live like the Amish to have peace in our homes?